3. [REDACTED] George Murphy, on the staff of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, called and asked if it would be possible for him to receive a copy of a CIA study written in September of this year on the transfer of technology from COCOM to the eastern bloc. I told Murphy I would check on this and be in touch with him.

4. [REDACTED] Talked to Richard Kaufman, Joint Economic Committee staff, to determine whether he would be interested in participating in the Advanced Intelligence Seminar panel discussion on the relative priorities of foreign and domestic U.S. programs. Kaufman said he would be willing to participate if the ground rules permitted discussion of Agency programs as well. I indicated that this would involve establishing parameters of the course which had not been anticipated and that we would keep him in mind for a future discussion along the lines of his interest.

6. [REDACTED] Miss Rhoda Kachilo, in the office of Representative John H. Dent (D., Pa.), called and asked if the Agency would be willing to provide a speaker to talk about the Agency with members of a criminology club of the University of Indiana when they visit Washington next month. She said there are between 40 and 60 members in this group and they will be addressed by representatives of the Secret Service, the FBI, and the Metropolitan Police Department. She said the Secret Service spoke to this group last year and welcomed an opportunity to meet with them again. I told Miss Kachilo that we did not normally do this, but that I would look into the situation and be back in touch with her.

7. [REDACTED] Dorothy Fosdick, on the staff of the Senate Subcommittee on National Security and International Operations, called to say that Senator Jackson would like an Agency briefing given to Richard Perle and herself on Soviet missile developments in connection with their new tests. Miss Fosdick asked if this could be given Monday afternoon. She also said that Senator Jackson was interested in attending this briefing if he could possibly do so. I told her I would check on this and give her a call Monday morning.
